Language: English Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The World-Call to Men of to-Day: Addresses and Proceedings of the Men s Missionary Convention, Held in Philadelphia, February 11-13, 1908 Some one has ventured to suggest how very interesting it would be to witness the proceedings, if Paul s advice to the church of Corinth were widely applied in relation to the subject of missions, and women everywhere were advised that if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home (1 Cor. xiv: 35). Indeed, besides affording not a little diversion, in all likelihood it might, likewise, lead to revolutionary results of far-reaching effect, if the good women of the church universal were to adopt this sound Scriptural injunction and set about catechising their husbands at home as to the principles, programme, progress and prospects of the work of the church of Christ throughout all the world. In the early days of the church, the women who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him, themselves the last at the cross and the first at the tomb, no sooner learned of the glad tidings of the risen Lord than away they went straightway to bring the men, also. And when he had committed the gospel, as he did alike to all, both men and women, to be made known to the whole creation, in order that of his Kingdom of Righteousness and Peace and Joy in the Holy Spirit there should be no frontier, the men went forth to take the lead in that great enterprise. But at length - no matter now how it came about - the original programme ceased to be carried out. As concerns the execution of the...
