Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Meeting of the American Institute of Instruction: Lectures, Discussions, and Proceedings; White Mountains, N. H. July 11-13, 1883 This volume contains an abstract of the proceedings of The American Institute of Instruction for 1883, together with the several lectures and discussions in full, or in condensed form as reported. The subjects treated embrace School Supervision its present condition and needs; the relations of the several grades of schools necessary to be maintained and the kind of instruction requisite to a complete education. It is to be regretted that more full and accurate reports were not preserved of some of the valuable addresses, especially of those of Dr. Henry Barnard, Presidents Buckham and Seelye, Mrs. Livermore, and Colonel Parker. The volume is, however, a valuable contribution to the educational literature of the current year, and will hold a high rank in the series of annual volumes, now numbering over fifty, of which it forms one. By a mutual understanding between the officers of the American Institute and the National Teachers Association, these two educational associations were...
