

Musical Chairs at the Hairdresser

By Irma Schiffrers

America Star Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In a constant search for the essence of life, the author attempts to summarize everyday things into a word game. This results into short stories written in column style that are humorous, critical, but with a wink to philosophical arguments and attention to detail. What does Sigmund Freud have to do with sexploitation and the white cat, and what does George Bush have in common with that bass and the European Football Championships? Conclusion: people are fascinating, animals are fantastic and the world is the kitchen of the universe. What we usually end up making is often not to be eaten, which is just a good reason to do it better next time.

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
