Excerpt: .it has burned everything inflammable within reach. It is clear, therefore, that everyone should act promptly in case of fire. At first a fire may be mothered by a few buckets of water or by throwing blankets or woolen clothing upon it. Sand, ashes or dirt will all quickly smother a fire. One of these should always be used instead of water on burning oil, as water will spread the oil and the fire. Anything hanging should, when possible, be pulled down before attempting to smother the fire in it. A bucket brigade will often prove valuable in putting out a fire. This should consist of two lines of men from the nearest water supply to the fire.-The men in one line pass buckets, pitchers or anything else that will hold water from one to another till the last man throws the water on...

Totally one of the better pdf I have at any time read through. It really is simplified but shocks within the 50 % from the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
