Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ohio School Laws: In Force April 15, 1889, Also a Set of Blank Forms, and Direction for Their Use, to Serve as a Guide for School Officers Section 360 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio thus provides: He [the State Commissioner of Common Schools] shall cause as many copies of the laws as are necessary, relating to schools and teachers institutes, with an appendix of appropriate forms and instructions for carrying into execution all such laws, to be printed in a separate volume, and distributed to each county with the laws, journals, and other documents, for the use of the school officers therein, as often as any change in the laws is made of sufficient importance, in the opinion of the commissioner, to require a republication and distribution thereof. There have been in this office for distribution no copies of the edition of the school laws of 1883 - the last edition published - for more than two years. The demand for copies throughout the whole State is now most importunate. There is, therefore, an...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
