

Gender Space and Power

By Mino Vianello, Elena Caramazza

Free Association Books, United Kingdom, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 155 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Presenting the key concept of ovular space as opposed to rectilinear spatial concepts as a new paradigm for social analysis, the authors put forward a wide-ranging social and cultural critique based on a utopian vision of a new social organization. They argue for a reversal of the masculinism that has predominated throughout human history to date. They analyse the origins and structures of this predominant cultural form and describe phenomena that indicate that this pattern is shifting with changes in gender roles. They emphasize that their approach is not biologicistic or essentialist and that their argument is based on the psychosocial reaction to biological fact. Their argument is based on a fundamental opposition between formal-rational thinking, prototypical of the male mind and female, ovular thinking, expressing itself in empathy , which they regard as a key component of social change in contemporary society. The book is divided into two parts, the first of which is entitled Space representation and the construction of social reality . This part addresses (1) Mind and space , (2) Gender difference in space representation ,...
