Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are you an asshole? Yes? No? How do you know either way? Being an asshole has a different meaning to different people. It varies by social class, race, gender, personality, mood, etc. Because of this, it can be a difficult thing to pin down, but in general, following the basic rules of applying common sense to most situations and being decent towards others will usually render you asshole-free. Confused? You re not alone. People by the millions walk around every day performing actions they deem completely acceptable; Never cognizant of the fact that they just became a total asshole to someone around them. Maybe they ARE aware and just don t give a crap. Those that fall into the latter category are probably too far gone to be saved but if YOU care, you should definitely read this book. Don t Be An Asshole! defines the specific types of assholes you may encounter and tries to examine why some people become the assholes they are, how to cope with them and what you can do (or not do) to make sure you don t become one yourself. It lists many a situation and place where asshole behavior is prevalent so that you can either prepare yourself or avoid them altogether. Still confused? Maybe this will help. Imagine a book that could help you learn: How to deal with stress Because asshole behavior stresses us out! What s better for stress than having your feelings justified by a complete stranger and having a laugh or two while you re at it? How to deal with difficult people The term difficult people itself implies people who are assholes. C mon,...
